

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1905.

NO. 35.

MIDDLEBURG.

We have had excessive rains and considerable damage was done to wheat, while corn and meadows were greatly helped.

Mr. Alex Hicks, a prominent citizen of this place, and Miss Louise Williams were married at Danville. The groom is a highly respected citizen and his bride is a splendid woman of Burgin.

Prof. J. S. Lawhorn, of Middleburg Normal College, is preparing for the erection of a dormitory in connection with the above popular institution of learning. Work will begin on the building within the next few weeks and it will be hurried to completion so as to be in readiness for the accommodation of the full students from a distance.

Mrs. Lillie Stepp, of Kidd's Store, was with her sister, Mrs. Murphy Clements, this week. Miss Jessie Bryant, of Nashville, is with her mother, Mrs. Anna Bryant. Miss Ruth Tifford, of Liberty, daughter of Judge J. M. Tifford, and a popular young school teacher, has accepted a position with the Drake Business College at Jersey City, N. J., and has entered upon her duties at that place. The above institution is one of the most prominent of the kind in the East and the position Miss Tifford holds is a responsible and lucrative one.

F. & A. M. Middleburg Lodge U. D., has just been instituted here and the order will meet regularly in their spacious hall over the Farmers Deposit Bank. The Masonic fraternity had a lodge here for a score or more of years, or until a few years ago, when the order moved to Liberty on account of losing their hall at the college. At present the lodge numbers 16 members. The officers are: J. T. Wesley, W. M.; J. W. Carson, S. M.; Q. R. Jones, J. W.; C. L. Pruitt, secretary; E. J. Godbey, treasurer; Stubbs Godbey, S. D.; Geo. Staton, J. D.; Robert Lanham, S. V. F.

HUBBLE.

All of the wheat in this community has at last been harvested and is in fine shape.

Elder F. M. Tindler has closed a successful meeting at Hustonville and will fill his pulpit here Sunday evening at 7 o'clock instead of three.

R. G. Bratton sold some corn to Lancaster parties at $2.85. D. N. Pruitt received a lot of lambs here last week at 6c. Joab Rigney is up from Casey with some cattle.

Dr. W. F. Hinkle and handsome wife have returned from a visit to Tennessee. His many friends hope he will locate here. Mr. Hugh Huffman and wife, who are more than 85 years old, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Anderson.

John Robinson had a hog lost for several weeks, and after seeking everywhere and inquiring as to its whereabouts, in passing through the feed yard one day, he heard something under the trough, which proved to be the lost hog, almost dead from confinement.

Dock Weaver is not home from State College. W. J. Spoonamore and wife have returned from San Antonio, Tex., where they spent several months in search of health for the former. We are glad to note that he is greatly improved. Mrs. Janet Campbell, who has been visiting her brother, James H. McKee, has returned to Somerset. Mrs. J. A. Rice, of Marksbury, entertained Friday evening in honor of Misses Sink and Roberts, who are guests of Miss Ethel Curran. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Miller went to Cincinnati Sunday to see their son, Frank.

Dying of Famine

Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its last stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Garfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at G. L. Penny's, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, drug stores. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

M. O. Winfrey, of Middleboro, was elected president of the Educational Improvement Commission, just formed at Mammoth Cave and E. R. Jones, of Franklin county, was elected treasurer. The selection of a secretary was left to the Executive Committee, and no one has been decided upon as yet.

Man's ne'er contented here below

Nor satisfied, I trow;

We used to curse the sleet and snow,

But how we'd love 'em now.

A Fulton undertaker advertises that he has "white and black hearses for both white and colored people."

HUSTONVILLE.

Prof. Rice S. Rice Eubank, Miss Kate Bogle and Miss Julia Stagg, of this place, together with quite a number of friends from Liberty attended the Kentucky Educational Association at Mammoth Cave. They report that the Cave Hotel could accommodate about 250 people while the crowd in attendance numbered about 1,200. Sleeping room and something to eat was at all times a thing much sought but rarely found. There were possibly 300 teachers present but the general public took advantage of excursion rates and hence the overflow of guests at the hotel. This was one of the most important educational meetings Kentucky has had since the 50s, when our public school system was first originated. Besides a very helpful general association, there was organized what is to be known as "The Educational Improvement League" with Dr. Hunie, of Frankfort, as chairman, and Prof. M. O. Winfrey was made chairman of the executive committee of the league. The purpose of this league is to organize and prosecute a vigorous campaign in every county of the State, to arouse the citizenship to the needs of local taxation for the organization and maintenance of graded schools in every town and village and to supplement the school fund to such an extent as to enable every district to have from eight to 10 months' school term. Besides the graded and district school movement it is proposed to awaken an interest in every section of the State in regard to the establishment by the State of three State Normal Schools for the training of teachers. A large campaign fund was raised to defray general expenses of the league and to pay traveling expenses of speakers for the work throughout the State. Verily the fight for better education in Kentucky is now on.

Resolutions of Respect.

CRAB ORCHARD LODGE NO. 836, F. AND A. M.—Whereas our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom has again visited our lodge by death in so short a time from the last call, and again so suddenly that it is well our trust and faith is in the living God. This should remind us more than ever of the certainty of death and the importance of having the pass word to the Celestial Lodge above, for who knows at which door next the grim reaper will knock and how soon and in what way. Brethren the call from labor to refreshment in the great beyond this time is our past Master and worthy brother, Geo. W. DeBord, who departed this life on June 29th, in his 67th year, while on a visit to Louisville to attend the Confederate reunion, of which he was a faithful soldier as he was also a faithful Mason and known by all men as a faithful citizen, and we trust our Lord will say to him: "On earth you were faithful unto death." Therefore be it resolved by Crab Orchard Lodge No. 836 in lodge assembled, that by the call of Brother DeBord the fraternity here has lost a faithful member, but we believe to his gain; his family a faithful husband and father, the community an honored citizen whose life was an open book for truth, honesty and fair dealings.

Be it further resolved that out of respect to his memory we wear the badge of mourning for 30 days and that these resolutions be printed in the Masonic Home Journal, our county paper, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, a copy be spread on the record book and last but not least a copy be sent to the family with our heartfelt sympathy.

In a pistol fight at Fulton, between J. J. Spink, an Illinois Central conductor, and J. J. President Roosevelt eulogizes Commissioner Garfield for his great services in investigations of the trusts. Of these services it is enough to say that the Garfield report on the beef trust was an object of general ridicule as an absurd document abounding in errors of fact and false conclusions. He could not have made a more satisfactory report to it had he been in the employ of the trust instead of the Government.

ONE of the charming social events of the season was the affair party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wearen for their nieces Misses Margaret and Nan Denton James, of Lexington, at their home on East Main Street. There were 100 guests present. The lawn was most beautiful, being well lighted with Japanese lanterns and the house was very artistic, pink and white sweet peas being the flower predominant. In the parlor Mr. and Mrs. Wearen and the Misses James received their guests; tall vases of sweet peas were placed on the mantel and piano. The dining room was also in sweet peas, the table being bare except for the lace centerpiece and mats, here smiles was also used in profusion. The colors were in pink and white and the idea was carried out in the ribbons as well as the candles and tapers of the silver candelabra.

In the back parlor where Mrs. W. H. McRoberts, Mrs. W. H. McKinney served frappe, was also a profusion of sweet peas. All during the evening music was dispensed by the following of Stanford's most talented musicians: Misses Mary Higgins, Allie Huffman, Virginia Bourne, Mary McRoberts and Sue Taylor Engleman. The Misses James, the guests of honor, and Miss Mary Farrer, of Virginia, favored the guests with vocal selections and those who assisted in entertaining the large crowd were Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Craig, Misses Essie Burch, Sue Woods and Alvira VanArsdale.

One of the features will be Jim McCreary's base running. The first game will be pulled off at the Graded School grounds at 3:30 this afternoon. Don't fail to be present. It's absolutely free.

THE Kentucky Press Association has very sensibly decided to "cut out" the junketing tour and spend a week, that of July 24-31, at Crab Orchard Springs in rest and recreation. It is a fine old place to while away the time and Mine Host Willis, a capital man to provide the creature comforts. He had however, better send out agents now to engage all the chickens in the surrounding country, for editors, like preachers, love the yellow leg fowl, after it has been properly prepared. The innovation of going to one place and remaining there originated with President Louis Landrum, who we are sure, will deserve and receive the thanks of every member, who appreciates the delights of a watering place and knows the inconveniences of travel.—Kentucky State Journal, Frankfort.

THE Lincoln County Medical Society met in Alcorn's Opera House, Hustonville, with the following members present: Drs. J. T. Wesley, L. F. Hammonds, L. S. Wesley, M. L. Pipes, W. T. Garner, Hugh Reid, J. G. Carpenter, Edwin Alcorn, Bertie Carpenter and J. C. Barker. The society was called to order by the president, Dr. Reid. Dr. Bertie Carpenter was elected secretary in the absence of Dr. Bailey. The minutes of former meetings were read and adopted. Dr. Barker opened the debate. Subject: Pathology and Treatment of Erysipelas. A scientific and lively discussion followed by all members present. Dr. Alcorn read an article on the recent and marvelous discoveries and advances in medicine and surgery, which was joyfully received. Dr. J. G. Carpenter "orated" on the early Diagnosis of Appendicitis, the Early Operation for same—how Surgery saves all cases. Procrustianism and complications kill and make a high death rate. The subject was endorsed and discussed freely by members. An interesting case of Osteomyelitis was presented with specimens of tubercular origin and early operation advised. The society was dined at Hotel Weatherford and the cuisine and hospitality so gratefully bestowed excelled Delmonico and Seelbach. It was the unanimous verdict that physicians who do not belong to medical societies and do not attend them are in ruts, rusty and behind the times, and are incompetent as physicians, life insurance or pension examiners and that every meeting of a medical society is a "post graduate course," which no doctor in practice can afford to miss. A vote of thanks was extended to the Hustonville fraternity. The society before adjourning agreed to meet at the noted health resort, Dripping Springs, on the second Thursday, August 10, and take their families and sojourn there many days.

Very liberal premiums are offered Saxton & Trost's famous Lexington band has been engaged, and a good time is in store for all. The fair is not a money making scheme, but simply to get the people together for one more good old time as in days of yore.

COLORADO INSTITUTE.—The Lincoln county colored teachers' institute held its annual session in the colored Baptist church under the efficient management of Prof. F. L. Williams, of Covington, one of the ablest instructors throughout the State. Each session was called to order promptly at 9 A. M., and closed at 3:45 P. M. On Monday morning Supt. Singleton introduced to the institute Prof. Williams, after which devotional exercises were read by the conductor. Election of officers then resulted as follows: Prof. F. L. Williams, Instructor, Dr. W. D. Tardif, Organist, M. E. Jarman, Secretary. Committee on Resolutions: W. D. Tardif, Rebecca Logan, Prof. F. L. Stepp. Committee on Program: Prof. F. L. Williams, Mrs. F. L. Stepp, Prof. R. C. Durham, Miss A. M. Engleman. Election of officers having been completed, Prof. Williams gave an excellent lecture on "What a real teacher should possess," which was highly appreciated by all. Among the worthy visitors of the institute were Hon. F. F. Babbitt, Crab Orchard, who is quite a noted gentleman of his home. He gave the institute some impressive remarks on "Education." Prof. Collins, of Lexington, gave the institute some ideas of his teachers' corresponding school. We were also glad to have with us Rev. Wallace Fisher, of Danville, also many other appreciated visitors. There will be an open session at the colored Baptist church to-morrow evening by the teachers, at which time their worthy instructor, Prof. F. L. Williams, will lecture. Everybody invited. SECRETARY.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. (New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.)

IN MEMORIAM.
At 12:30 o'clock, June 22, 1905, Mrs.
Sallie A. Norris was called to her heavenly reward. She was 76 years of age, had been a faithful and devoted member of the Forks of Dix River Baptist church for 63 years. As long as she had strength to go she was faithful in the service of her Master, but for several years she had been one of God's "shut-ins." She retained a good memory and as she grew weaker her faith
in Christ grew brighter and stronger.

Mrs. Norris was born at Markslury, Garrard county, where she resided until a few months ago when she came with loved ones to Stanford. On Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock appropriate funeral services were conducted by Rev.
O. M. Huey at her old home church in Garrard county, after which her remains were laid to rest by the dear husband and little son who had gone on before. The floral offerings and sweet music were but feeble symbols of the scenes which await the noble spirit in her Celestial home.

Besides her son-in-law and daughter,
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Aldridge, she leaves four grand children, a grand son and daughter-in-law and two sweet little great grand children and a host of friends, who deeply feel her loss. She was a friend; kind, loving and true, a woman of most beautiful christian character, accepting with thankful heart the sunshine, and bearing patiently the burden of a lung and useful life. It may truly be said of her she always thought of others before herself. Her devotion to her church, her friends and loved ones was beautiful, her deeds of kindness live after her, as her light lingers when the orb of day has disappeared. In the fullness of her years she went to her reward in peace and tranquility of soul, for death had no sting
and the dark portals of the grave no terror. Her life was an open book of good deeds, which has been closed here,
to be opened and read in the courts of glory.

Dear one, thou art gone to rest,
We will not weep for thee;
For thou art now where oft on earth
Thy spirit longed to be.

Thou art gone to rest
And this shall be our prayer,
That when we reach our journey's end
We shall meet thee there.

Huge Task.
It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did
it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair
without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression." In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all
with weak kidneys, liver or stomach.
Guaranteed by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, druggists. Price 50c.

A traveler who passed through a small English town noticed a post on which was marked the height to which the river had risen during a recent flood.
"Do you mean to say," he asked a native, "that the river rose as high as
that in 190—?"
"Oh no," replied the native; "but the village children used to rub off the original mark, so the Mayor ordered it to be put higher up, so as to be out of their reach."—Harper's Weekly.
